

NOT FOR SALE

STAND BY THE PRESIDENT NOW

March - Song

By

SUSAN SCHMITT

Words by

EDWARD NEWTON VOORHEES

Price, sixty cents

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

THE BOSTON MUSIC COMPANY

NEW YORK: G. SCHIRMER, Inc.—LONDON: WINTHROP ROGERS, Ltd.]

Stand by the President Now

There's many a thing we all can do
To serve our country now;
We'll leave it to our Uncle Sam
To show us Where and How.
His spokesman is our President,
Of steady heart and mind,
Above the kings of all the earth—
A giant of his kind.
So stand by the President now, boys,
Stand by the President now;
He's proved his call
To lead us all—
So stand by the President now.

They said we'd sold our souls for gold,
But he has changed their mind;
That Voice has rung around the world,
The truest of its kind.
It calls The People now to win
True freedom everywhere—
America has ever been
The answer to their prayer.
So stand by the President now, boys,
Stand by the President now;
Our Flag's unfurled
To save the world—
So stand by the President now.

Have you the strength and courage, lad?
Don't falter, then, nor lag—
Get measured for your khaki now
And follow our country's flag.
By land and sea we'll find our place,
There do our humble share,
With hoe or plow, with pen or sword,
Our country to prepare.
We'll stand by the President now, boys,
Stand by the President now,
From East to West
We'll give our best—
We'll stand by the President now.

Edward Newton Voorhees

Stand by the President now!

Edward Newton Voorhees

Susan Schmitt

In brisk march time

Voice

Piano

f sf mf

1. There's man-y a thing we all can do To
2. They said we sold our souls for gold, But
3. Have you the strength and cour - age, lad? Don't serve our coun - try now:— We'll leave it to our Un - cle Sam To he — has changed their mind;— That Voice has rung a - round the world, The fal - ter, then, nor lag;— Get meas - ured for your Kha - ki now And show us Where and How.— His spokes-man is our Pres-i- dent, Of stead-y heart and tru - est of its kind.— It calls the peo-ple now to win True free-dom ev - 'ry - fol-low our coun-try's flag.— By land and sea, we'll find our place, There do— our hum-ble mind,— A - bove the kings of all the earth, A gi - ant of his kind.— So where.... A - mer - i - ca has ev - er been The an - swer to their pray'r. So share,— With hoe or plow, with pen or sword, Our coun-try to pre - pare.— We'll

Chorus

stand by the Pres-i- dent now, boys, stand by the Pres-i- dent now; He's stand by the Pres-i- dent now, boys, stand by the Pres-i- dent now; Our stand by the Pres-i- dent now, boys, stand by the Pres-i- dent now; From proved his call To lead us all, So stand by the Pres-i-dent now. So flag's un-furl'd To save the world, So stand by the Pres-i-dent now. So East to West We'll give our best, We'll stand by the Pres-i-dent now. We'll stand by the Pres-i-dent now, boys, stand by the Pres-i-dent now; He's stand by the Pres-i-dent now, boys, stand by the Pres-i-dent now; Our stand by the Pres-i-dent now, boys, stand by the Pres-i-dent now; From proved his call To lead us all, So stand by the Pres-i-dent now. So now.

 flag's un-furl'd To save the world, So stand by the Pres-i-dent now. So now.
 East to West We'll give our best, We'll stand by the Pres-i-dent now. We'll now.

